Pooled together

CONGRATULATIONS to Monash councillors for taking back control of the Oakleigh pool decision process and reversing the manipulation that was becoming obvious to all.

It was most probable that the pool would have remained doomed if the demand for consultation had not been undertaken.

We cannot let the reputation and stench of the old Oakleigh council be allowed to permeate Monash council.

However, from reading Cr Denise McGill's letter (Your View, June 18) and speaking to others who have experienced the antics, it sounds as though it is building.

Congratulations again. Keep it under control and continue to make decisions for the benefit and use of the Monash community.
